MAD TAROT is a way of playing with reality - you can reflect, play and move between intuition and intention. Each card holds one thought, one symbol, one small piece of meaning. They come from stories, cultures and symbols I have encountered while walking through life - from things I have learned and created. A house can become belonging. A bird can become love. A pattern can become memory. Two figures can become connection.

I use these cards as fragments inside larger paintings. They enter the work like clues, codes and keys to the larger portals I open through my canvases. All cards together form the mythology of Zoé Mad.
